Foreword

The symbolic ring on the cover reminds us that we have been the "fighting Trojans" for eight years. But even as our school graduates its last class, we will always cherish Southwest—it classes, traditions, students, sports, dances, plays, wins and losses, laughter and tears.

The Iliad staff hopes you will enjoy the 1964 edition of the Iliad as much as we enjoyed preparing it.

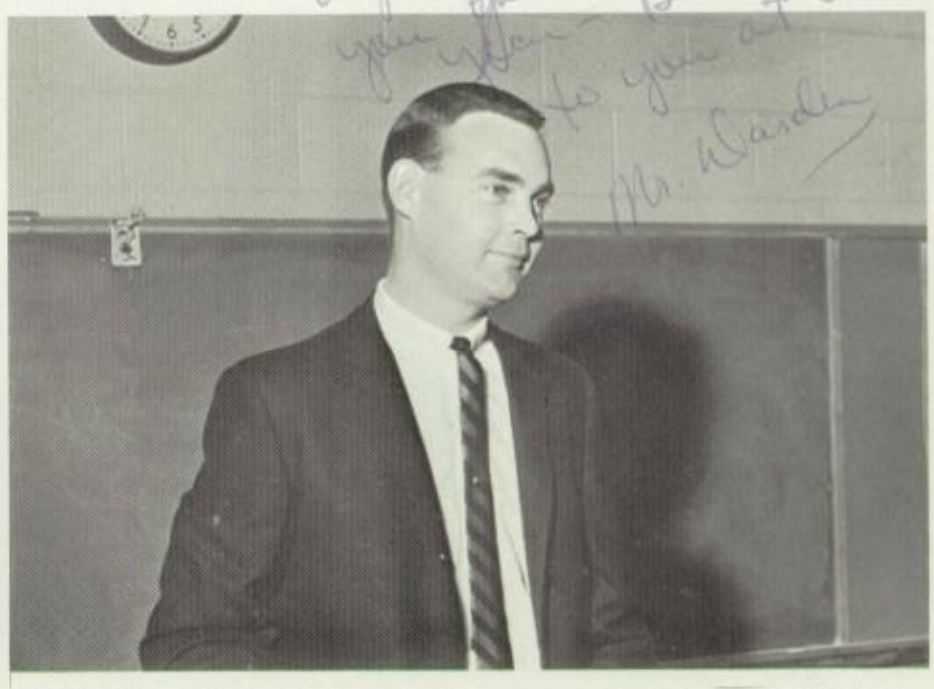
Teachers in Action

Helping, leading, advising, reprimanding—these are the tasks of the Southwest faculty. These teachers daily challenge students to aim for maximum achievement in knowledge, as well as in extra-curricular activities.

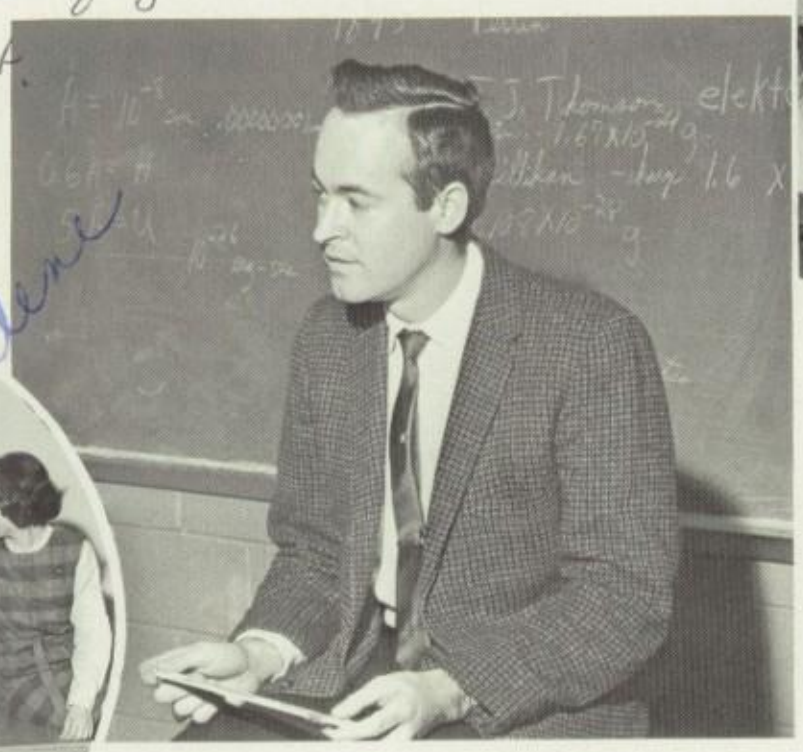
Miss Swaringen explains a grammatical error to Rick Disher.



Mr. Darden demonstrates "how to speak" properly.

Mrs. Callahan smiles as she explains an algebra problem from an "uncluttered" desk.

From Mr. Robinson's viewpoint, history, is an easy subject.



Mr. Hampton, please let me have the part.

Time: Physics class
Place: Mr. Hall's room

The Class of 1964 now has little more than memories left with which to compose the high school chapter of its life. Beginning with 204 in the freshman year, the class dwindled to 168, with 17 in the commercial course, 66 in the general and 85 in the academic.

As the last graduating class of Southwest High School, the seniors exhibited leadership and influence and culminated four years of outstanding achievements. In the field of academics, fourteen per cent of the class made the honor roll. In sports, the contributions of the members led all the other classes.

There were days of honor and also days of work—tests, college board examinations, application forms. Somehow the class managed to pull through without much trouble.

There was work in the class and for the class. No one can forget the Senior Play, the committee work, the practices for graduation, the selection of motto and flower, and other numerous decisions. The class picnic united and strengthened ties of friendships. On Class Day the seniors turned over their obligations to the juniors.

The pages read, the chapters retold, and the volume finished—the last graduating class of Southwest High proudly marched down the aisle.

The thrill of being upper classmen, and the challenge of the accompaning responsibilities prompted the actions of the Class of '65. Anticipation of the Junior-Senior Prom put them to work immediately. They worked hard in presenting three one-act plays —Comin Round The Mountain, Mistletoe and Moonlight and If Girls Asked Boys For Dates.

Not all of the attention of the Juniors was on money making. With subjects such as Chemistry, English, American History, Latin and French, Creative Writing and Public Speaking, their schedule was filled with many long hours of toil and study.

Next year's seniors are look forward to ordering their class rings along with the experience of beginning a new school.

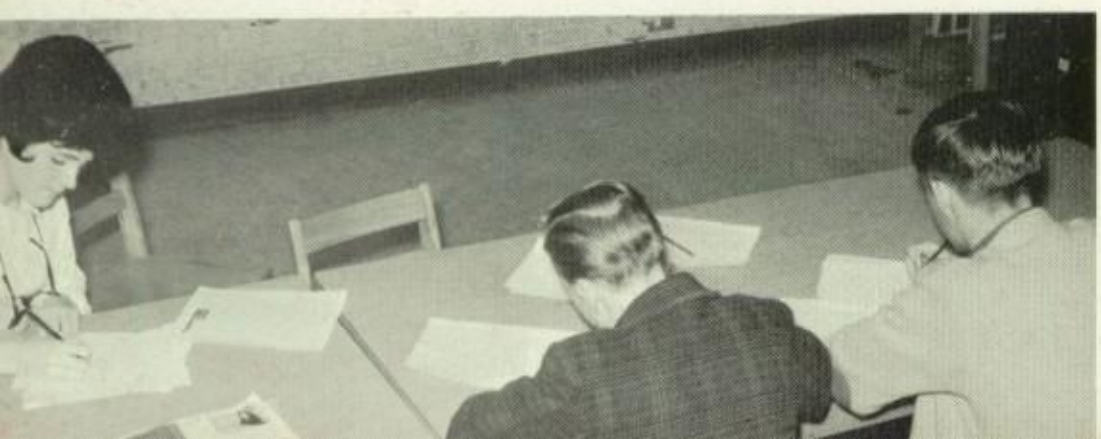
Sophomore Activities

The Class of '66 came back to Southwest in September knowing they were a step closer to graduation. Among the subjects taken by the sophomores are English, biology, geometry, world history, French, and driver training. With plenty of homework to keep them busy, the tenth graders still find time to engage in extra-curricular activities and to plan for the Sophomore Prom.

Serious Sophomores?

"Mrs. Huffaker, can't we go a minute early?"



These driver-training tests are a bore.

The Student Council is responsible for many of the functions of school life at Southwest. Presenting assembly programs, improving the school grounds, and running the school store are among the services of the group. An additional activity is the sending of remembrances to students during an illness.

Throughout the months of September, October, and November, the council sold tags supporting the athletic teams and held dances after many home games.

Delegates attended a workshop at Mars Hill in July and the State and District Council Meetings.

Working late after school was no unusual occurrence for the industrious Iliad staff. The attempts they made to recapture the memories of this, Southwest's last year as a senior high, was a time-consuming and constant responsibility, but it was one enjoyed by all staff members. They took and selected pictures, made layouts, gathered and edited copy.

Last summer, Mary Williamson, Hugh Hampton, Rosemary Perry, and Nelson Jones, attended the Press Institute at Chapel Hill. Classes in art and layout, composition, writing copy, taking pictures, and writing captions were held. Learning that the trend in modern yearbooks is to have interesting pictures showing people doing something, the representatives have worked hard to illustrate this in the 1964 Iliad.

Staff

The Odyssey, Southwest's school newspaper, began preparing for its busy year in July. Tom Geraty, Carolyn Furchess, Billie Gabard, Betty Allgood, and Miss Farthing, advisor, attended the North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute at Chapel Hill. With notebooks full of valuable information and new ideas, the staff began preparations for the year.

When school opened, the staff was already at work on the first issue which was given to each student. Subscriptions were taken for the other four editions of the paper.

The 63-64 Odyssey used a new format. There was no advertising; so there was space for many feature articles written by the staff and other solicited contributors. The outstanding news coverage of the paper gave the students informative editorials and reported school events from the sports to the proms.

National Honor Society

Induction into the National Honor Society at Southwest takes place twice a year. Only juniors and seniors are admitted to the Society which strives to lift and to maintain high standards of scholarship, leadership, and service in high school.

The National Honor Society gives public recognition to all students making any quarterly honor roll. In addition to this, they award scholastic letters and stars to those who are named on the yearly honor roll. Members of the Society follow the progress of former members going to college, and efforts are being started to follow the careers, college and otherwise, of all members.

Donald Gabard and Anne Dickinson prepare props for induction service.

Key Club

The KEY CLUB participated in service projects for both the school and the community. These services included the upkeep of the school grounds, operating the concession stand after school and at all sports events, and distributing Goodwill bags. Each month, members elect a boy as "Key Clubber of the Month" and from these select a "Key Clubber of the Year".

The Quill and Scroll is the International Society for High School Journalists. One of the main objectives is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism and allied fields. Members must be at least juniors and must rank scholastically in the upper third of their class. Each inductee must have done superior work in some phase of journalism at his high school.

In February, the group sponsored an assembly program with Mr. Bill East, city editor of the Journal-Sentinel, as guest speaker. Mr. East spoke on Communism.

Dramatics Club

Attending plays, helping with plays, and presenting plays were among the many activities of the Dramatics Club this year. In addition to these, during their weekly meetings, they made studies in make-up, lighting, and wardrobe of plays.

Among the plays attended at "Theatre '63" were "The Fantasticks," "Who Was That Lady I saw You With?", "Death of a Salesman," and "Take Her, She's Mine."

The club aided the Shakespearean actors who presented skits from three of Shakespeare's plays. Separate committees were in charge of helping with lighting, make-up, and sets.

Not only did the club watch and help with plays, but also they presented plays of their own selection. "A Baker's Dozen" and "Anything Can Happen" were two of their productions. All activities of the club were supervised by Mr. Burton Hampton, advisor.

Advanced Placement

Carolyn Furches, Carma Lustig, Betty Allgood, Larry McGilvary, Mike Cumbo, Barton Bridges, and Mike Jennings.

Advanced Placement classes in English, history, biology, and chemistry are attended by a number of students from Southwest. The classes are the equivalent of college freshmen courses. The students provide their own transportation to the early morning sessions held at Reynolds High School.

Library Helpers

Shelving Books, charging cards, writing fine notices, and constructing bulletin boards are among the duties of these library assistants who help Mrs. Lois McGirt.

Seated: Louise Davis, Rebecca Hayes, Harriet McBride, Gloria Poindexter, Marion Morgan. Standing: Marion Carlton, Jan Whittington, Terri Roop, Jane Frye, Becky Wilcox, Camilla Hanes, Judy Beroth, Darlene Norman, Jean Lilly.

A Southwest girl earns the right to wear the S by her active performance in the sports area. Letters are given for cheerleading, basketball, volleyball, softball, team managing, and scorekeeping.

The Girls' Monogram Club encourages sportsmanship and good school spirit among the team members and students. A most important project of this group is the awarding of sportsmanship trophies. These trophies are presented annually to the boy or girl athlete who has shown the best sportsmanship for his team during the season.

The Girls' Monogram Club had a carwash to raise funds for the Sportsmanship trophies.

Two of the many activities participated in by members of the Southwest Future Homemakers of America Club are the district rally and the state convention.

This fall at the district rally in Asheboro, Gail Van Doeren, secretary of the Southwest Chapter, was elected state reporter. Gail will go to Chicago this summer with the state officers to attend the national F.H.A. Convention.

Each year the chapter members study one topic pertaining to a phase of homemaking. This year the topic has been "Preparation for Marriage." Among the many guest speakers and panelists were Mr. Elmer Stelter, pastor of Olivet Moravian Church; Mr. William Sheek, assistant pastor of New Philadelphia Moravian Church; Mr. Carl Wyatt and Mr. Frank Robinson, of the Southwest faculty, and a group of homemakers.

D E Club

Distributive Education students at Southwest attend classes in the mornings and work at either retail or training establishments in the afternoon. In addition to this formal part of their training, the students take part in district and state activities of the organization.

At the state meeting in Raleigh in March, Judy Roberts, a Southwest D.E. student, represented this district in the job interview competition. Contests were also held for sales demonstrations and outstanding student events.

Highlighting the year's activities is the Bosses' Banquet, held at Reynolds High with the employers of all D.E. students in Winston-Salem—Forsyth, as honored guests.

Also, the Southwest group participated in the organization of a D.E. chapter at Reynolds High School.

F.F.A.

Motto:
Learning to do
Doing to learn Earning to live Living to serve.

One way the Southwest F.F.A. boys follow their motto is the participating in F.F.A. activities.

The boys enter the following local and state contests: public speaking, parliamentary procedure, land judging, tool judging, and dairy and beef cattle judging. All contests offer local and state prizes; several offer $400 as a state prize.

The Ag. boys always enter booths and projects in the Dixie-Classic Fair. This year the Southwest Chapter won $125 in prize money.

F.F.A. boys also work in the school Laboratory Farm to learn the best methods in production of tobacco plants, field crops, vegetables, small fruits, and wild life plantings. With the co-operation of the Biology department, the F.F.A. members are constructing a nature trail.

This year's projects and activities include attending and participating in the State Convention at Duke University, giving to each teacher a special Christmas card, and serving a continental breakfast to the teachers on Valentine's Day. In addition, each member is assigned to help a teacher all year at least once a week. Through helping other teachers, these students begin cultivating the qualities essential in a good teacher.

Boys' Basketball

The Southwest basketball team opened the '63-'64 season by winning the first four of six games and closed the season with a 10-10 record. Composed of two seniors, nine juniors and one sophomore, the team hustled in each game and was never an easy victim in any loss.

Sophomore Jerry Smith was the only returning letterman. Senior Chuck Sink led the team's defense. Ron Reavis, and Smith lead the team in scoring. Top rebounders were senior David Spaugh, Ronnie Reavis and Hugh Hampton. Billy Huff was a clutch player coming off the bench to score needed points. Frank Brewer and Eddie Hauser were other top players.

Two Southwest records were broken in the King game. Reavis scored 29 points, which broke the individual scoring record and Hampton set a new record, scoring 31. The fast-breaking Southwest team scored 90 points to set a record for team scoring.

The Southwest five gave East a tough battle, before losing in the last quarter in the District Tournament. At the close of the season, Southwest placed third in the conference.

The Fighting Trojans finished third in the Class 3A Forsyth Conference with a 1-2 record. In total games, Southwest finished with a 6-3 won-lost record, the best in the last four years.

In the first game of the season, Southwest showed its Offensive strength by defeating a strong Central Davidson team, 19-0. On the last play Steve Etchison intercepted a pass and went 33 yards for a score.

The Trojans continued their scoring rampage with a 27-0 victory over Boonville's Black Knights. Mike Cain sparked the attack with help from Jerry Smith and Larry Ball. Eddie Hauser and John Frederick helped to bulwark the un-scored-upon Trojan defense.

In the first conference game, the Trojans played their best game of the season, but lost to the stronger Vikings of North, 20-0. Still in the dumps, Southwest lost to a 1-A school, East Davidson, 6-0, This evened the record, 2-2.

The Trojans' spirit picked up against Madison-Mayodan in a 34-0 romp. Steve Etchison, Mike Cain, and Gray Crater led the Trojans' mighty offenses.

In the Homecoming game, which Southwest has never lost, the Trojans continued their winning ways by defeating a fighting Griffith team 21-19. Larry Cain "stole" an intercepted Trojan pass and scored in the last minute of the game.

Mike Cain scored three touchdowns in Davie County's loss to the Trojans, 28-0.

The Trojans had their best scoring game of the season against West Montgomery. Mike Cain scored 18 points, and Etch scored 20 points in a 38-6 rout.

The last game of the season was the one every Trojan wanted. The East Eagles were on top in the conference, but the Trojans felt they could win. The Trojans lost in valiant effort 19-0, finishing the season with a 6-3 record.

Mike Cain, Steve Bingham, Chuck Grubbs, and John Frederick were elected to the All-Conference team. Steve Etchison, Ronnie Revis, and Larry Cain received honorable mention. All this would not have been possible without the excellent coaching of Mr. Young, Mr. Miller and Mr. Frederick.

I don't know exactly what to say (write!) I never do! I have truly enjoyed knowing you these past two years. It'll never be forgotten some memorable experiences I've had. (Over at your church that nite with Lynn!) I am looking forward to the next two years with you. although we've had our misunderstandings, I hope that it may forever all you "friend" Remember, "first above all, to thine own self be true!" because "oh, what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive!" Be forever kind, sweet, and adorable. Keeping smilin' because a smile is never wasted! down here, I'll wish you the best of luck (not that you need it!) in future years.
Sue Hall

Carol,
It's been very nice to know you these past two years, and especially this year. Boy: have we had some fun in Study Hall and Miss Cook scolding us. But that didn't matter, did it? Remember during Valentine when you were having all of your problems? Boy were you a mixed up girl. You sure have turned bad this year. You've gone from a "nicotine fein" to a "Molly Garon"; how bad can you get? Being serious, it sure has been great to have a friend like you.
Good luck at Governor's School and with the boys.
Have a nice summer.

It's been a ball

there is never a dull moment. I'm very happy that you are going to the Governor's School. You certainly do deserve it.
You've been a true friend through thick and thin. Good luck and

Carol
Your friendship has meant a great deal to me this past. I only wish we could have done better at some things and not two much like Saturday night.
It was not only surprising but a great deal of fun.
Maybe I'll get over to Governor's School and be well equipped. I want to say a great big B thanks for everything. Maybe we can still be friends next year. Just think you are a Drum Majorette and I'm a cheerleader. This is just great.
Loves ya,
Charlene Chealwood

Carol,
I hope you enjoy Governor's School this summer as much as I'm going to enjoy it (not going that is) I didn't know you last year but I don't agree with Cheryl! I'll see ya next year at West and we'll see what we can do to make our first year at West "remembered" by all!

Liz

Carol,
We've made it through another year! Wasn't it been fun? I hope to see you a lot this summer at Tanglewood. Have a good time this summer and try to be good.

Carol
I hate to say the same old thing. So I'll just say that I hope that I'll see you a lot this summer and next year. (you would never guess that I failed English)
Jimmy
("Clyde")

Carol,
I have enjoyed being in French, English etc., this year (even though you are a brain.) I hope you have a good time at Governor's School this summer (I don't believe I could stand it). See you next year.

Carol,
I think you certainly are a very smart. I know you have a very great future ahead. I have enjoyed being in your classes. You are a lot of fun to be with. Be Good!

Billie Norman

Dear Carol,
I'm so proud of you. (Seriously) It's really been fun going to school with you this year. I hope all your troubles this summer aren't as big as the one's this year. Be good!

Love ya!
Jacquie

Carol,
I know that you and Gail "carry"
don't like to get "corny" but I don't see how I can express what this year has meant to me with out being serious and maybe a little corny too. I have really changed my opinion of you since the grade. I appreciate all the kindness you have shown me, but more than that I had our problems, but we were able to because of your appreciation of you as a friendship. If you ever need me your sincerity. If you are a lot like you I appreciate that. You are a very special person you'll be a success at whatever you do hope that we will meet again
Good Luck & God Bless

Carol,
Hope you have a "Great" time at Governors School this summer but remember your purpose for being there. Don't remember Bus 32 and those rainy mornings. Hope to get to know you better next year.
See you at West.

Excuse writing! David Boone

Carol,
It has been nice knowing you.
Good luck to
